

Acorn to Oaks Financial Services Ltd Privacy Notice

Legal basis for processing data

Processing data is necessary for the purposes of legitimate interest pursued by Acorn to Oaks Financial Services Ltd as an insurance intermediary except where such interests are overridden by the interests, rights or freedoms of the data subject (you). When processing special category data (sensitive personal information) we will always obtain your explicit consent.

What information we collect about you?

When you contact us for an insurance quotation we collect the relevant information needed by an insurer to calculate the premium and understand your insurance needs. The information varies dependant on the risk to be insured.

When we collect this information?

We collect this information during our meetings and/or telephone conversations with you, through our exchange of e-mails and through the completion of proposal forms and fact finds or via online submission forms.

How we store your personal data?

We hold your personal data electronically. The system is securely backed up and data encrypted to protect your data from cyber attacks and online hackers. We also hold your data in paper files. Security at the premises is of a high standard to prevent loss of data from unauthorised access or theft.

How your information will be used and who might we share it with?

The information we collect will be passed to insurers to enable them to calculate a competitive insurance quotation to meet your requirements and/or handle a claim you are making under the policy. In order to obtain the most competitive cover it may be necessary to pass your information to other insurance intermediaries who are authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. Information provided by you may be put onto a register of claims and shared with other insurers to prevent fraudulent claims. We may share your data with other third parties in order to meet our legal or regulatory requirements. Should you wish to pay your premium by instalments we may pass your information to a premium finance provider however, this will not be done without discussing payment options with you first. We may share your information with, and obtain information about you from, credit reference agencies. If this is the case we will provide you with information about the credit reference agency we have used. Please note that any searches undertaken prior to you proceeding with your application will be soft searches and will not affect your credit rating.

How long we will keep your data for?

We will retain any information we have collected about you for up to 6 years after our professional relationship has terminated. In certain circumstances it may be necessary to retain your personal data for longer. All retention periods are documented in our data retention policy.

Your rights of access to your data

Under the Data Protection Act 2018 you have a right, to obtain a copy of the personal information that we hold about you free of charge. If you believe that any information held is incorrect or incomplete, you should contact us (see contact details below). Any information that is found to be incorrect or incomplete will be amended promptly.

Erasure rights

You have the right to request the deletion or removal of your personal data if you feel there is no compelling reason for its continued processing.

Your right to object

Under the Data Protection Act 2018 you have the right to object to us processing personal data based on grounds relating to your particular situation. If you object to us processing your personal data we will stop unless there are compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms or, the processing is for the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal claim.

Your right to complain

You have a right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office if you feel there is a problem with the way we are handling your data. Please contact <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/handling/>.
